D. DISCUSSION

1. CEC Updates: Appointment of Vice Chair

- Shirley is the Chair for CEC and her term will end in 2020. She would like to appoint Kim Johnson as the Vice Chair. In 2019, Shirley will mentor Kim.

Kohn Motion
Stegman 2nd Motion

2. Human Rights Day Event – December 10th, 2018

- City Staff will set up at Falcon Heights United Church of Christ. City will provide cookies, coffee, and water.
- Since we do not want audience to be on their phone to submit questions, we will provide note cards and pens. City Staff will continue to ask residents and guests to submit questions via social media, and weekly newsletters. Those questions will be used at the event and members are encouraged to ask questions to bring in more engagement.

3. Neighborhood Liaison Packets

- CEC request staff to meet with City Administrator if the Neighborhood Liaison Packets should include Kris Grangaard, CERTs main contact person as another resource.
- Packet should continue to be reviewed yearly
- Packet will not make it in time to use the St. Paul Foundation grant to print copies but can put it on the website.
- City Staffed received the list of Neighborhood Liaisons list and will have check if they still live in Falcon Heights.

4. Updates on Youth Outreach Opportunities

- City Staff met with Jobcorps who can be a good organization to collaborate as they focus on career developments for students and adults. Staff also met with Ramsey County Work Solution in North St. Paul, and they would like to collaborate in the future. Ramsey County Work Solution's goal is to partner with all Ramsey County cities and be a resource to youth.
- City Staff reconnected with 4-H who suggested that Falcon Heights can create their 4-H club or weekend event for youth such as; Learn how to dress for interview, mock interviews, learn how to write resumes and cover letters, have Public Works teach youth about public maintenance, mentorship day, and basic cooking and fixing cars.
