DATA PRACTICES
CLASSIFICATION OF GOVERNMENT DATA

ACCESS TO DATA BY THE PUBLIC

Access To Data By The Public

While some data maintained by the city is data about individuals, which is presumed to be private, the broader assumption about government data in general is that it is public, and should be readily available to anyone who asks for it. Failure to disclose information that is public is a violation of data practices laws.

Any person (individual or non-individual) can have access to public data simply by making a request to the responsible authority that has jurisdiction over the data. The person has the right to inspect and copy the data at reasonable times and places, and, if the person so requests, will be informed of the data's meaning.

Inspection of Data

There is no fee for inspecting the data (Minn. Stat. Sec. 13.03, subd. 3.) Inspection includes visual inspection of the information in paper or some other medium, such as on the website. Inspection does not include printing copies, unless printing a copy is the only way to inspect the data.

For data stored in electronic form and available to the public through electronic remote access, inspection includes allowing the public to have access to the data so that they can print or download the data from their own computer equipment. The responsible authority may charge a reasonable fee for remote access to data if there is a specific statutory grant of authority.

Data with Commercial Value

When data requested by the public include data that have commercial value (such as a formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique, etc) and a substantial and discrete portion of the data was developed with a significant expenditure of public funds, the responsible authority may charge a reasonable fee for the information in addition to the costs of making, certifying and compiling the copies (Minn. Stat. Sec. 13.03, subd. 3(d)). Any fee charged must be clearly demonstrated by the agency to relate to the actual development costs of the information.

Computer Storage Medium

If the requested data is maintained in a computer storage medium, the responsible authority must provide a copy of the data contained in that medium in electronic form if the city can reasonably do so (Minn. Stat. Sec. 13.03, subd. 3(e)).

Time Limits For Response

Copies of public information should be disclosed as soon as reasonably possible. Work on compiling copies should begin immediately upon request. If the request cannot be honored immediately the city should, as a matter of courtesy, send a letter to the requester acknowledging receipt of the request and giving the requester an estimate of the time it will take to compile and send the information.

CLASSIFICATIONS OF GOVERNMENT DATA

Classifications of Government Data

The Minnesota Government Data Practices Act defines Government Data as all data collected, created, received, maintained or disseminated by any state agency, political subdivision, or statewide system regardless of its physical form, storage media or conditions of use (Minn. Stat. Sec. 13.02, subd. 7).

Government Data are separated into classifications and the classification of data determines their accessibility by the public. Information about individual people is classified by law as public, private, or confidential. A list of the private and confidential information maintained by the City is attached as Exhibit A.

Data On Individuals

Data on individuals are defined as government data in which any individual is or can be identified as the subject of that data, unless the appearance of the name or other identifying data can be clearly demonstrated to be only incidental to the data and the data is not accessed by the name or other identifying data of any individual.

There are three classifications of data on individuals :

- Public -- This is data about individuals which can be disclosed to anyone for any purpose, e.g. names and salaries of city employees.

- Private -- This is data about individuals which can be disclosed only to the subject of the data or to government entities and employees whose work assignments reasonably require access to the data.

- Confidential -- This is data about individuals that even the individuals themselves cannot be told, e.g., information from an investigation about welfare fraud or in adoption records. Note, however, that even if the confidential data itself cannot be disclosed to individuals, individuals do retain the right to know whether an agency is maintaining confidential data about them. Confidential information may be given to people who are authorized access by federal, state or local law or court order or people within the city staff, the city council, and outside agents (such as attorneys) whose work assignments or responsibilities reasonably require access.

Data Not On Individuals

Data not on individuals are government data about non-individuals, such as organizations including partnerships, corporations, associations, etc.

- Public -- This is data about non-individuals, such as businesses, which can be disclosed to anyone for any purpose, e.g., names of vendors who have contracts with the city.

- Private -- This is data about non-individuals which can be disclosed only to the subject of the data or to government entities and employees whose work assignments reasonably require access to the data, e.g., certain financial information about businesses.

- Protected Non-public -- This is data about non-individuals, which is available only to government entities with a legal right to know it. A corporation being investigated for fraud, for example, would not have a right to the information being collected during the investigation.

Information Technology Policy

Information Policy Compliance and Consequences

All City of Lake Elmo users, including employees, volunteers and contractors, who have rights to access or modify city information in any media, or who use city computers, business applications or electronic communication resources, must comply with Lake Elmo Information Policy, the federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act and all other laws or rules governing the protection of data. Failure to comply is grounds for sanction and/or disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment, cancellation of contract and/or loss of resource privileges. Failure to comply may also result in notification to law enforcement officials and regulatory, accreditation and licensure organizations.

Use of any City of Lake Elmo information technology devices will be limited to employees. All files of any kind, including electronic mail disseminated or received utilizing city devices or software or which resides on computers within the City of Lake Elmo should not be considered as private and employees shall have no expectation of privacy. The contents of electronic mail will not normally be monitored, censured, or otherwise examined unless there is reason to believe the usage is being abused. City investigations, law enforcement investigations, or court order or data practices request may require the examination and release of any file or document, including electronic files such as electronic mail.

Electronic Mail (Email):

Purpose of Email: the email system is a tool to be used for matters directly related to the business activities of city employees and as a means to further the mission by providing services that are efficient, accurate, timely and complete.

Public Nature of Email: email is a public record like any other public document. Email may be searched for evidence in any legal proceeding. By using the email system, the employee consents that in the event of suspicious activity their email system may be searched for evidence gathering purposes.

E-mail messages are subject to regulation under the Minnesota Data Practices Act. As such, all e-mails unless private (content determines public or private) should be considered public information.

Policy: employees are responsible for adhering to business standards when email is created, sent, forwarded or saved. Failure to adhere puts the organization and the individual at risk for legal or financial liabilities, potential embarrassment and other consequences. Employees should not keep e-mail for an extended period of time. If it is a critical e-mail correspondence, it should be saved as a hard copy or as a text file and moved to the server. Delete all inbox, sent, and deleted messages that are no longer needed.

Members of the Public

Right to Access Public Data

The Data Practices Act (Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 13) presumes that all government data are public unless a state or federal law says the data are not public. Government data is a term that means all recorded information a government entity has, including paper, email, CD-ROMs, photographs, etc.

The Data Practices Act also provides that the City of Lake Elmo must keep all government data in a way that makes it easy for you, as a member of the public, to access public data. You have the right to look at (inspect), free of charge, all public data that we keep.

You also have the right to get copies of public data. The Data Practices Act allows us to charge for copies. You have the right to look at data, free of charge, before deciding to request copies.

How to Make a Data Request

To look at data or request copies of data that the City of Lake Elmo keeps, make a written request. Make your written request for data to the appropriate individual listed in the Data Practices Contacts document on page eight. You may make your written request for data by mail, using the data request form on page ten.

If you choose not to use the data request form, your written request should include:

1. that you, as a member of the public, are making a request for data under the Data Practices Act, Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 13;
2. whether you would like to look at the data, get copies of the data, or both; and
3. a clear description of the data you would like to inspect or have copied.

The City of Lake Elmo cannot require you, as a member of the public, to identify yourself or explain the reason for your data request. However, depending on how you want us to process your request (if, for example, you want us to mail you copies of data), we may need some information about you. If you choose not to give us any identifying information, we will provide you with contact information so you may check on the status of your request. In addition, please keep in mind that if we do not understand your request and have no way to contact you, we will not be able to begin processing your request.

How We Respond to a Data Request

Upon receiving your written request, we will work to process it. If we do not have the data, we will notify you in writing as soon as reasonably possible. If we have the data, but the data are not public, we will notify you in writing as soon as reasonably possible and state which specific law says the data are not public.

If we have the data, and the data are public, we will respond to your request appropriately and promptly, within a reasonable amount of time by doing one of the following:

- 1) Arrange a date, time, and place to inspect data, for free, if your request is to view the data, or
- 2) Provide you with copies of the data as soon as reasonably possible.

You may choose to pick up your copies, or we will mail or fax them to you. If you want us to send you the copies, you will need to provide us with an address or fax number. We will provide electronic copies (such as email or CD-ROM) upon request if we keep the data in electronic format. Information about copy charges is on page nine.

If you do not understand some of the data (technical terminology, abbreviations, or acronyms), please let us know. We will provide you with an explanation.

The Data Practices Act does not require us to create or collect new data in response to a data request if we do not already have the data, or to provide data in a specific form or arrangement if we do not keep the data in that form or arrangement. (For example, if the data you request are on paper only, we are not required to create electronic documents to respond to your request.) If we agree to create data in response to your request, we will work with you on the details of your request, including cost and response time.

The Data Practices Act does not require us to answer questions that are not requests for data.

Requests for Summary Data

Summary data are statistical records or reports that are prepared by removing all identifiers from private or confidential data on individuals. The preparation of summary data is not a means to gain access to private or confidential data. The City of Lake Elmo will prepare summary data if you make your request in writing and pre-pay for the cost of creating the data. Upon receiving your written request – you may use the data request form on page ten – we will respond within ten business days with the data or details of when the data will be ready and what the cost will be.

Data Subjects

Data about You

The Data Practices Act (Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 13) says that data subjects have certain rights related to a government entity collecting, creating, and keeping government data about them. You are the subject of data when you can be identified from the data. Government data is a term that means all recorded information a government entity has, including paper, email, CD-ROMs, photographs, etc.

Classification of Data about You

The Data Practices Act presumes that all government data are public unless a state or federal law says that the data are not public. Data about you are classified by state law as public, private, or confidential. See below for some examples.

Public data: We must give public data to anyone who asks; it does not matter who is asking for the data or why. The following is an example of public data about you: if you are an employee of a government entity, the fact that you work for the entity, and your job title and bargaining unit is public.

Private data: We cannot give private data to the general public, but you have access when the data are about you. The following is an example of private data about you: your Social Security number.

We can share your private data with you, with someone who has your permission, with City of Lake Elmo staff who need the data to do their work, and as permitted by law or court order.

Confidential data: Confidential data have the most protection. Neither the public nor you can get access even when the confidential data are about you. The following is an example of confidential data about you: if you register a complaint with a government entity concerning violations of state laws or local ordinances concerning the use of real property, your identity is confidential.

We can share confidential data about you with City of Lake Elmo staff who need the data to do their work and to others as permitted by law or court order. We cannot give you access to confidential data.

Your Rights under the Data Practices Act

The City of Lake Elmo must keep all government data in a way that makes it easy for you to access data about you. Also, we can collect and keep only those data about you that we need for administering and managing programs that are permitted by law. As a data subject, you have the following rights.

Your Access to Your Data: You have the right to view (inspect), free of charge, public and private data that we keep about you. You also have the right to get copies of public and private data about you. The Data Practices Act allows us to charge for copies. You have the right to look at data, free of charge, before deciding to request copies. Also, if you ask, we will tell you whether we keep data about you and whether the data are public, private, or confidential.

As a parent, you may have the right to look at and get copies of public and private data about your minor children (under the age of 18). As a legally appointed guardian, you have the right to look at and get copies of public and private data about an individual for whom you are appointed guardian.

Minors have the right to ask the City of Lake Elmo not to give data about them to their parent or guardian. If you are a minor, we will tell you that you have this right. We may ask you to put your request in writing and to include the reasons that we should deny your parents access to the data. We will make the final decision about your request based on your best interests. Note: Minors do not have this right if the data in question are educational data maintained by an educational agency or institution.

When we Collect Data from You: When we ask you to provide data about yourself that are not public, we must give you a notice. The notice is sometimes called a Tennessee warning. The notice controls what we do with the data that we collect from you. Usually, we can use and release the data only in the ways described in the notice.

We will ask for your written permission if we need to use or release private data about you in a different way, or if you ask us to release the data to another person. This permission is called informed consent. If you want us to release data to another person, you must use the consent form we provide.

Protecting your Data: The Data Practices Act requires us to protect your data. We have established appropriate safeguards to ensure that your data are safe.

When your Data are Inaccurate and/or Incomplete: You have the right to challenge the accuracy and/or completeness of public and private data about you. You also have the right to appeal our decision. If you are a minor, your parent or guardian has the right to challenge data about you.

How to Make a Request for Your Data

To look at data, or request copies of data that the City of Lake Elmo keeps about you, your minor children, or an individual for whom you have been appointed legal guardian, make a written request. Make your request for data to the appropriate individual listed in the Data Practices Contacts document on page ten. You may make your written request by mail using the data request form on page twelve.

If you choose not use to use the data request form, your written request should include:

1. That you are making a request, under the Data Practices Act (Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 13), as a data subject, for data about you;
2. Whether you would like to inspect the data, have copies of the data, or both;
3. A clear description of the data you would like to inspect or have copied; and
4. Identifying information that proves you are the data subject, or data subject's parent/guardian.

The City of Lake Elmo requires proof of your identity before we can respond to your request for data. If you are requesting data about your minor child, you must show proof that you are the minor's parent. If you are a guardian, you must show legal documentation of your guardianship. Please see the Standards for Verifying Identity document located on page thirteen.

How We Respond to a Data Request

Once you make your written request, we will work to process your request. If it is not clear what data you are requesting, we will ask you for clarification.

- If we do not have the data, we will notify you in writing within 10 business days.

- If we have the data, but the data are confidential or private data that are not about you, we will notify you in writing within 10 business days and state which specific law says you cannot access the data.
- If we have the data, and the data are public or private data about you, we will respond to your request within 10 business days, by doing one of the following:
 1. Arrange a date, time, and place to inspect data, for free, if your request is to look at the data, or
 2. Provide you with copies of the data within 10 business days. You may choose to pick up your copies, or we will mail or fax them to you. We will provide electronic copies (such as email or CD-ROM) upon request if we keep the data in electronic format. Information about copy charges is on page nine.

After we have provided you with access to data about you, we do not have to show you the data again for six months unless there is a dispute or we collect or create new data about you. If you do not understand some of the data (technical terminology, abbreviations, or acronyms), please let us know. We will provide additional explanation.

The Data Practices Act does not require us to create or collect new data in response to a data request if we do not already have the data, or to provide data in a specific form or arrangement if we do not keep the data in that form or arrangement. (For example, if the data you request are on paper only, we are not required to create electronic documents to respond to your request.) If we agree to create data in response to your request, we will work with you on the details of your request, including cost and response time. In addition, we are not required under the Data Practices Act to respond to questions that are not requests for data.
