IRRIGATION REMINDERS

As we head into the irrigation season, please remember the city ordinance allows properties connected to the city water system to irrigate 2 days per week (according to the city irrigation zone map). Irrigation is restricted from the hours of 5am-5pm. Hand watering is allowed at any time and new sod waivers are available if needed.

You can further reduce your water usage by using a smart irrigation controller device. For more information on how to obtain a smart controller or more information on watering restrictions, please visit the city website. Irrigation.

Irrigation enforcement has begun.

Thank you for doing your part to insure we all have sufficient drinking water and fire protection!

HUDSON BLVD CONSTRUCTION

A portion of Hudson Boulevard (east of Eagle Point Boulevard) will be reduced to one total lane of traffic starting early the week of July 8, 2024. The work is being done to improve this section of Hudson Boulevard and install a bituminous trail as a part of the Amira development adjacent to the site which is under construction. Please refer to the map above.

Traffic will remain open in both directions but will be controlled by a portable traffic signal system. The signal system will operate 24 hours a day and will alternate traffic moving east or west on a timer. The work is expected to last 45-days (weather dependent). It is recommended you consider alternative routes to avoid potential delays associated with this work if you are able.

Private Wells and PFAS

LAKE ELMO FARMER'S MARKET

Market runs 9am to 1 pm on Saturdays.

- Market will be open rain or shine unless inclement weather of high winds or lightning.
- Staff will be present on all Market days at 7:30 to 1pm. Any concerns or questions please seek staff out. We will be in center of Market.
- We will be selling our Lake Elmo Farmer's Market Cook Book that has Hand written recipes from vendors and visitors.

We would like to thank the community for your support of the first ten years of our Market. As a reminder the Market is an entirely volunteer 501 C3 organization and we are presently seeking a Facebook/media board member to keep communications ongoing.

We are also looking for additional volunteers, to ensure the continual success of the Market well into the future. Thank you for your consideration.

For the Market to continue into the future we need volunteers.

Please give us a call at 651-261-4493.

The Sally Manzara Interpretive Nature Center in Lake Elmo's Sunfish Lake Park is operated by a non-profit organization for the benefit of the entire community. We offer programs and events for people of all ages and have "adopted" the Park in the City's program. This work is all funded by donations. Thank you for your support!

July is really busy! Here are some things happening at the SMINC:

- Our next buckthorn removal day is coming up on Saturday, July 13th! Work starts at 9:30 and goes till noon. We have loppers and gloves, bring your energy. Free fresh air and exercise. The first phase of the Restoration of Sunfish Lake Park project has done the initial clearing of 40 acres of buckthorn, replanted oaks, and native grasses, and forbs. For more details <https://sminc-lake-elmo.org/buckthorn/>
- The SMINC's good friend, Angie Hong, has a book coming out on July 9th. One of her first book events will be at Sunfish Lake Park on July 13th (busy day!) at 10 a.m. It'll start with a guided hike, followed by a Q & A and book signing. To register, visit: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/908406477227?aff=oddtcreator>

- Thursday, July 18 at 7 p.m. dragonfly expert Jeff Fischer will be here to talk about dragon and damselflies. He'll have tips for beginners for identifying these beautiful creatures!
- Summer is here! We had our first summer camp this week, a Little Explorers camp for pre-K kiddos and their families. Our first Wonder Wednesday camp, "Earth's Elementals," is coming up on June 26, from 9 a.m. to 2. We've got lots of other options for camps, from single-day camps to 4-day camps, for age ranges from pre-K to 10 year olds. Check out our summer camp offerings here: <https://www.eventbrite.com/cc/sminc-summer-camps-3007279?utm-campaign=social&utm-content=creatorshare&utm-medium=discovery&utm-term=odclsxcollection&utm-source=cp&aff=escb>

What are Stormwater Ponds?

Is there a pond in your HOA community? Chances are it was built to help manage stormwater instead of being naturally occurring. Stormwater ponds are large constructed basins designed collect, store, and treat large amounts of stormwater runoff. They help to reduce downstream flooding and remove pollutants by capturing and slowly releasing water. There are two types: wet and dry.

Function of Wet Ponds

Wet ponds have a permanent pool of water and are typically surrounded by vegetative buffers to help collect pollutants. There is often a visible outflow structure in the pond, called a riser. In most wet ponds:

- Runoff flows into the pond through an inlet.
- A smaller pool, called a forebay, slows the runoff and lets sediment and other pollutants to settle to the bottom.
- Water then flows to a second pool, the primary pool, for additional settling.
- If the water level exceeds the outlet elevation, like after heavy rainfall, the outlet structure slowly releases it.
- During extreme rain events, water may flow over the highest part of the pond, called the emergency spillway or overflow.

Function of Dry Ponds

Dry ponds are a large grassy basin, sometimes with rock, other vegetation, and an outflow structure that are dry except for after storms. In most dry ponds:

- Runoff flows into the pond.
- The basin slows the incoming water and allows sediment and other pollutants to settle out.
- The water infiltrates into the ground to replenish groundwater or is released slowly through an underdrain or outlet structure to nearby waterways within a few days.
