

Lake Elmo - East Oakdale Joint Meeting

Meeting of January 4, 1967 in the old bank building.

Present - Abercrombie, Beske, Eberhardt, Franta, Kleis
 Leslie, Lundquist, and Schiltgen

The meeting was called to order by Bruce Abercrombie and the minutes of the meeting of November 22 were approved as written up. There were no objections to the committee appointments.

It was decided that the next meeting should be held on February 1st, and that there be preliminary reports from all committees at that time. We also desire that Rod Lawson advise us on merger procedures, and possible timetable for the total consolidation before or at the Feb. 1st meeting.

It was thought that it might be possible to discuss the merger situation at the East Oakdale annual town meeting in March, and perhaps even solicit signatures for the petition at that time, depending on the reaction obtained.

All present thought that the new community should be named Lake Elmo. A large part of East Oakdale now has a Lake Elmo post office, and the historic name "Oakdale" has already moved to the west.

Wm Lundquist, Acting Secretary
