Process:

We opened the applications to all residents. All applicants are being interviewed by the entire City Council.

Questions:

1. The City Council meets the second and fourth Tuesday of each month at 7:30 p.m. Do you have any conflicts with this schedule or expect to be able to attend meetings remotely?
2. Discuss your interest in serving on the City Council. As the council members also commit to being on committees both in and outside of the City, feel free to discuss any committees of interest to you. Examples include the community involvement committee or our obligations with our watershed districts and partnerships with our surrounding cities.
3. What do you perceive are the key issues facing Lauderdale in the next 5-10 years?
4. What do you consider to be your two best skills and how do you believe they will help you succeed at being a member of the City Council?
5. What do think the Council should do when the goals of a vocal minority in the community conflict with what the Council thinks is in the best interest of the community?
6. How would you handle an irate resident or complaints about the City, City Council, or staff?
7. In about 30 second, summarize for us why you think you are the best candidate for the City Council.
8. Do you have any questions for the City Council?

Next Steps:

The City Council will decide on their selection at the conclusion of the interviews. The Administrator will let all candidates know the outcome.
