Background	The City is required to update it's zoning code to be consistent with the 2030 Comprehensive Plan adopted last year. The city needs to rezone properties that are guided to new uses in the plan and to amend its zoning chapter to provide the zoning controls needed to implement the plan. At earlier workshops this year the Planning Commission studied the scope of what needs to be done and discussed options. At the direction of the Commission, staff consulted with the city attorney and with the City's Metropolitan Council sector representative. The City Attorney has provided drafts of ordinances that may accomplish those parts of comprehensive plan implementation stated above. City Attorney Tom Scott will be present at the workshop to assist the Commission and staff. With Commission input at this workshop, it is hoped that final drafts can be prepared for public hearing in August.
