1. Rick Carter presented his preliminary findings on the carbon footprint analysis that he has been working on. The report focused on water, waste, energy, and vehicle miles traveled. The commission encouraged sharing the information and directed staff to arrange for a meeting between Carter and the city council.
2. Miller introduced the draft environmentally friendly purchasing policy, as is required in order to claim credit under the GreenStep Cities program. The commission agreed with the language and found no changes that needed to be made.
