 Decorum Policies ***

- (1) Conduct oneself with respect and civility towards others and otherwise abide by Council, Commissions, and Committee policy. Please refrain from conversations with others during the meeting, and shouting from the audience will not be allowed. Being quiet during the meeting is appreciated so that the business of the governing body can be conducted with full attention to the matter at hand;
- (2) The governing body will provide (2) opportunities for public comment during the meeting. First, an opportunity will be given at the onset of the meeting for general comment; Second, opportunity will be given to speak on an agenda item at the time the governing body addresses the item;
- (3) Citizens wishing to speak must sign in and provide their request to the Council, Commission, or Committee Clerk for distribution to the Mayor/ Chair. Upon being recognized, you should proceed to the lectern and state your name, address and topic to be discussed. You will be given (6) minutes to speak. The Mayor/Chair may interrupt or terminate a citizen's statement when it is too lengthy, personal, insulting, abusive, obscene, or slanderous. Any person acting in an unruly manner may be asked to leave the meeting.
- (4) No person shall display signs or placards, applaud participants in debate or engage in conversation or other behavior which may disrupt the proceedings of the Planning Commission.
- (5) When a group of persons wishes to address the Planning Commission on the same subject matter, they may choose a spokesperson to address the governing body. No action will be taken in response to a petition delivered at a Planning Commission meeting. Petitions will be placed on file and referred to the appropriate staff for consideration and recommendation of appropriate action.
